Values:

The "Mind, Body, Spirit" philosophy covers the primary pillars of the John Henry Primary School values for its citizens. Mind refers to academic performance, Body is sporting involvement and Spirit is wider school involvement. It is through a balance in these three key aspects that a person makes the most of their time at John Henry Primary School.

Behavioural Expectations:

John Henry Primary School acknowledges that the behaviour of staff, parents, carers and students has an impact on our school community and culture.

Staff have a range of expectations around behaviour and must follow our school and Department policies and the Victorian Public Service Code of Conduct and Values. Teaching staff also adhere to the Victorian Teaching Profession Code of Conduct.

Students are supported by school staff to meet expected standards of behaviour as outlined in our Student Wellbeing and Engagement Policy, Inclusion and Diversity Policy and Bullying Prevention Policy.

Information about the expectations on parents and carers to ensure schools remain respectful and inclusive places is outlined in the Department's Respectful Behaviours within the School Community Policy and our Respect for School Staff Policy.
